

Little Buckaroos Rodeo

Contestant first name	Contestant last name	Goes by this name	Age	Gender

This is to certify that (we) (I), individually and as parent(s), legal guardian(s), or legal representative(s) of the minor listed above, do hereby release the Chambers County Saddle Club and Chambers County Ag Arena, Little Buckaroos Rodeo or any of their agents, successors or assigns, from all liability, claims or demands for any and all injuries or damages to person or personal property, including but not limited to any and all livestock used in competition by said minor(s) arising or which may arise from any accidents which may occur while said minor is participating in or attending any events hosted by the said Chambers County Saddle Club and the Little Buckaroos Rodeo. The substantive intent of this release is to include identical provisions for liability release for adults accompanying the above named minor(s) as those for the minor themselves.

I understand that:

- (I) (we) must be on the premises of the Chambers County Ag Arena all times supervising my child(ren).
- That the management of the Little Buckaroos Rodeo reserves the right to excuse persons for conduct distracting to the enjoyment by others in attendance.
- All pictures (that may include my child) taken by the rodeo photographer will become the property of the Chambers County Saddle Club/Little Buckaroos Rodeo for advertisement, rodeo website or rodeo promotion.
- If it rains on rodeo day, the rodeo will continue in the rain.
- Lightening will cause a delay and the rodeo will resume as soon as it is safe to do so.
- No refunds will be made under any circumstances.
- If a horse breaks a pattern and/or barrier, no second try will be given. The contestant will be awarded a score of "zero" and exit the arena immediately.
- All participants must be able to perform the requirements of the event without adult assistance. No lead lines in any event including the Grand Entry.
- Birth certificates are required on children ages 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16. A copy of the birth certificate must be attached to the pre-registration form. If no copy is provided, a copy must be produced at final registration or the contestant will not be allowed to enter the event and no money refunded.
- No horses will be allowed in the vendor area (mounted or unmounted).
- Horses may not be left unattended unless they are securely tethered to a trailer.
- Horses, riders, and contestants may not be in the alley leading into the arena unless they have been called for an up coming event.
- Only rodeo personnel will be allowed in the arena with the participants. This includes parents and guardian.
- The registration booth will close at 9:30 AM on rodeo day. No new registration or changes will be allowed after that time.
- All contestants are responsible for reporting to the arena at the appointed time for the events they are registered in. If a contestant fails to report at the appointed time, the announcer or arena director will give him/her three (3) calls. After the 3rd call, the contestant will be scratched from that event as a "no show".

WARNING: Under Alabama Law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine, activities, pursuant to the Equine Activities Liability Protection Act.
